

Taking sub-metering to the next level with approved and verified meters from ABB

ABB's MID-approved EQ meters offer the same quality as revenue meters, approved and verified meters. EQ meters are certified and have verified meter accuracy, which is a critical factor in establishing fairness in cost allocation and distribution among tenants. Many EQ meters are also delivered directly from our factory with first time verification. ABB's EQ meters are high-performance, modular DIN rail-mounted electricity meters that are safe, easy to install and can be integrated with existing and future electrical installations. EQ meters are designed to fulfill any type of submetering requirement.

www.abb.com

