

Course description

F130e

Motor control & protection up to 18.5 kW / 20 hp Manual motor starters, contactors, overload relay & softstarters

Course Duration

The duration is 32 minutes.

Course Type

Internet course.

Course Goal

This course is presenting a complete motor starting solutions up to 18,5 kW / 20 hp. It includes manual motor starters, contactors, overload relays and softstarters.

You will have a very good first approach on complementary product portfolio for basic motor starting applications.

You will have in a short time an overview on technical data, features, characteristics and customer benefits for all these products.

You will get also the associated short form catalogue by downloading from "links" located on top right side of the screen.

Student Profile

The course is intended for technical back office, sales engineers and new hired product managers.

Prerequisites and Recommendations

The student must have an electro technical background.

Main Topics

- Motor starting overview
- Manual motor starter
- Softstarters
- Contactors
- Contactors accessories
- Motor starting solution in kit form

