

SafeWind The circuit breaker for wind turbines

Wind-turbine switchgear is often installed either inside the tower base (making maintenance a real challenge) or in a small secondary substation built alongside. ABB has now introduced SafeWind, the slim, compact and flexible 36 kV circuit-breaker panel for wind applications, to enable easy installation and replacement. Only 420 mm wide, the entire breaker can easily fit through the tower door of a wind turbine.

www.abb.com/mediumvoltage

