

Basic Course Control System AC31

Learning objectives

The participant knows the system structure of the AC31 control system, its sub-systems and their functions. He is capable of configuring, commissioning and testing the control system.

Contents

- AC31 devices
- Bus systems
- Configuration
- Programming in accordance with IEC 61131
- Practical exercises
- Test and fault finding

Methods

Presentations, demonstrations, practical exercises, discussions.

Participants

Users without administrator rights, primarily in managerial functions and planners who wish to track the newspaper production process on-line or who require reports on the newspaper production.

Maximal number of participants

Maximum 6 participants per course.

Previous knowledge

Basic electrical education, PC knowledge.

Duration of the course

5 days

Customer's target personnel

Electrical maintenance staff

ABB University Switzerland

Bruggerstrasse 72

CH-5400 Baden

Tel +41 58 585 53 74

E-Mail university@ch.abb.com

Web www.abb.com/abbuniversity